

Age Concern Otago Is Committed To Protecting Your Privacy And Complying With The Privacy Act 1993.

Any personal information you enter on an Age Concern Otago website or online platform may be used by Age Concern Otago or any person or organisation acting as its representative for the purpose stated. Every effort is made to ensure personal or identifiable information is kept secure. Your personal information helps us to process your donations accurately and securely. Without your permission we do not rent, sell, or exchange your personal information. We may contact you to, for example, to share information about the work of Age Concern Otago or to update your contact information. When you submit information on our website or social media platforms like an image, profile information, comment, post, it becomes publicly available unless otherwise stated.

If you have any questions please email agecon@ageconcernotago.co.nz